Belt and Road Initiative and Global Studies English Manuscript Template

Main Title (26pt, Times New Roman)

—Subtitle (18pt, Times New Roman)

Author 1, Author 2, and Author 3(16pt, Times New Roman)[①]

e.g.: Permineralized Fagus Nuts from the Eocene of Vancouver Island, Canada

Randal A. Mindell, Ruth A. Stockey, and Graham Beard

Abstract: It should include the research question, objectives, methods, results, and conclusions, without offering any evaluative or prescriptive commentary. approximately 300 words. Font: Times New Roman, size: 12pt.

Key words: XXX XXX XXX
(3-5 keywords; leave one character space between multiple keywords)

(Text, Font: Times New Roman, size: 12pt, single line spacing)
XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX.[②]

First-Level Heading(16pt,Times New Roman)

XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX.

---

① Author's name, affiliation, and title. First line indented by 2 characters. (Use 10.5pt Times New Roman font with single line spacing).

* Funding: funding program name and number. For example, this article is one of the research outcomes of the Fund Project "XXX" (No.: XX)

② All historical materials and literature citations throughout the text must use footnotes, with independent numbering (①②③) for each page. There should be no reference list at the end of the paper. The format should follow GB/T 7714—2025. Superscript circled numbers for in-text citations should be placed after punctuation marks. Provide full bibliographic details for the first citation on each page, for subsequent citations of the same source on the same page, use a shortened note. For example, if citation ② refers to the same source as ①, it should be cited as: Ibid. ①XX (where XX represents the page number). For detailed formatting, please refer to the footnote examples on the next page.

Table 1 XXX（12pt,Times New Roman）

Data source：XXXXXXXX (10.5pt, Times New Roman)

Second-level Heading (14pt, Times New Roman)

XXXXXXX